The Importance of a Disability Matters Europe Award

Application Process:

Provides applicants with a comprehensive process for reviewing the effectiveness and sustainability of their disability-related initiatives.

Receiving an Award:

- Provides national, regional and global recognition, credibility, and confirmation the company is on the right path for success.
- Enhances external branding; positioning the company as a leader among its peers.
- Reinforces internal support and strategy.
- Has a favorable influence on the recruitment and retention of candidates and employees with disabilities, and those caring for someone with a disability.
- Positively impacts revenue from customers who either have a disability or are caring for someone with a disability.

Companies selected as a Disability Matters Europe Honoree will be asked to present at Springboard's world-renowned
