NEW YORK, NY (12/3/09) -- Springboard Consulting LLC announces its Fourth Annual Disabilities Matters Awards Banquet and Conference, to be held Thursday, April 8, 2010. The event, which is co-hosted by Adecco and KPMG LLP, will be held at KPMG's New York City office. The conference will be preceded by a welcome reception on Wednesday evening, April 7.

"We are very pleased and honored that Adecco and KPMG LLP, both recipients of the Disabilities Matters Award, are co-hosting the 2010 awards gala," said Nadine Vogel, President of Springboard Consulting LLC. "Their dedication to pioneering innovative diversity and work life initiatives support employees who either have a disability, or who have a child or other dependent with special needs, is an example to organizations everywhere.

"Vogel added that, "The disability community is the largest and fastest growing minority segment in the world, and in the U.S., it surpasses the Hispanic population by 5 percent. Meeting the needs of this most important segment through workforce, workplace, and marketplace initiatives can no longer be considered just a strategic advantage. It must be approached as a business imperative.

"This year's Disability Matters conference will feature executive presenters from corporate America, the federal government, academia and the non-profit sector, sharing their experiences and best practices on how to support and market to this large, loyal segment of the population.

Companies interested in sponsoring this event, purchasing tickets, placing an events program ad, and/or applying for one of these prestigious awards, which honor outstanding commitment to the disabled community in the areas of Marketing, Work
