2:45 pm – 3:30 pm	Description: Automation is everywhere—from apps that deliver instantly to AI that screens job applicants. We use voice assistants to control our homes, wear wristbands that monitor our actions, and rely on algorithms to evaluate facial expressions and movements. While AI promises efficiency and fewer mistakes, it also raises critical questions about privacy, fairness, and civil rights. This session will explore the growing role of AI and its impact—both positive and potentially harmful—on the rights of people with disabilities.
